

Seminar Series on “New Horizon in Greening – Skyrise Greenery” by Greening, Landscape and Tree Management Section, Development Bureau, and Civil Service Training and Development Institute, Civil Service Bureau

Seminar Series No. 1 – Overview and Perspective on Skyrise Greenery

Date: 9 November 2010 (am)

Venue: Lecture Theatre, Hong Kong Central Library, Causeway Bay, H.K.

Detailed information

9:00 – 9:15	Registration
9:15 – 9:45	"Skyrise Greenery in Urban fabric of Hong Kong – a New Horizon and Beyond" by Miss Kathy Ng Head of Greening and Landscape Office, Greening, Landscape and Tree Management Section, Development Bureau
9:45 – 10:15	"Building Integrated Landscape Systems" by Mr. Andy Lewis Fellow of the Hong Kong Institute of Landscape Architects Principal, Design + Planning, Regional Landscape Architecture Director (Asia), AECOM
10:15 – 10:45	"Opportunities & Constraints of Skyrise Greening in Hong Kong" by Mr. K. S. Wong Director & Chairman of Green Labelling Committee, Hong Kong Green Building Council Chairman, Professional Green Building Council Director + Director of Sustainable Design, Ronald Lu & Partners (H K) Ltd.
10:45 – 11:00	Break
11:00 – 11:30	"Microclimate study of Building Development – Implication of Sky Gardens" by Dr. Raymond Yau Chair of Energy Use Expert Panel of Hong Kong Green Building Council (HKGBC) Fellow and Director, Ove Arup & Partners Hong Kong Ltd
11:30 – 12:00	"Green Imperatives" by Mr. Matthew Pryor Past President of the Hong Kong Institute of Landscape Architects Head of Division of Landscape Architecture, Faculty of Architecture, The University of Hong Kong
12:00 – 12:30	"Effect of green roof on ambient CO₂ concentration" by Professor Onyx W.H. Wai Department of Civil and Structural Engineering, The Hong Kong Polytechnic University
12:30 – 12:50	Discussion